Movin' On

The Editors

WAIT! Doesn't anyone read editorials anymore? You should! It allows you to find out more about your yearbook, such as . . . this book is a group effort, the accomplishment of months of work and three deadlines, performed by a diligent and zealous staff. It is a representation of your 1977-78 year laid out between two covers on 176 pages. Many people may hate the book, while others may like it, but, as the old saying goes, you can't please all of the people all of the time. You can only try to please a majority of the people.

The theme of COLLEGIAN '78 is "Movin' On," whether it be from one grade to the next, graduation to university and a job, or from life to death. In choosing this theme, Kenny and I felt it appropriate, since we are all involved in this aspect of life. We must always look forward—we cannot go back.

The Collegian staff and the people with whom I ate lunch deserve a THANK-YOU for their sympathy, tolerance, and votes of confidence. They were often plagued with such phrases as: "no, no, no!" Two picas between everything, and I mean everything"; "you can't trap white space or copy"; "Where are my lists!"; "your deadline was yesterday"; and "DON'T HANDLE THE PICTURES, PLEASE." I must admit that often these warnings were ignored, but I felt better knowing that they had been warned.

And now for the last half of this column—

Jim Devetering

Another school year has come and gone. For many of you, its end is a welcome relief. For many of our graduating students, it will be a year of fond memories; now it is time to "Move On." It is to these students that these remarks are addressed.

High school years are probably the most important in one's development. Academically, you are prepared for later study, learning self-discipline and good study habits so necessary for post-secondary school life. Socially, one may experience the joys, and pains, of one's first feelings of love for a member of the opposite sex. Occasionally, such relationships begun in high school lead to eventual marriage. Also, in a high school environment, one learns how to take one's place in society, recognizing that everyone has his own contribution to make.

As this year ends, one may feel a loss. During four or five years here, you develop a sense of belonging, whether to a particular club, group of friends, or maybe a special girl or boy. The end of the year threatens to take this all away. It is to soften the loss that we have produced this yearbook. Autograph pages, club and team pictures, candids, special pages, and mug shots—all help to preserve a little bit of the year just ending.

Therefore, with these thoughts in mind, you are now entering a new environment, a whole new society, one for which high school has been preparing you. As you are "Movin' On," we all wish you the best of luck. For those returning next year, we will welcome you back to our centennial year, 1978-79.

ONCE UPON A TIME... All of 5 years ago, there was a group of young, optimistic, carefree teenagers, living in and around the metropolis of Stratford. These kids were looking for some action and a bit of Education on the side. They had heard about an old castle called Stratford Central, that was located on the hill near the village. It had a good reputation: fine teachers, high academic standards, AND GREAT PARTIES!! With these thoughts in mind, our young adventurers decided to display their talents at Central. Upon arriving there, they were warmly welcomed by the inhabitants of the castle. A day was even held in honor of these newcomers on which they received the Auspicious title of "NIPPERS"! And what an occasion! The senior inhabitants of the castle, calling themselves Grade Thirteen had the privilege of terrorizing the Nippers for the whole day. These Grade 13's delighted in accosting the young Nippers with huge piles of books to be carried from the dungeon to the tower by the longest route possible. But our heroes and heroines remained undaunted by these tortures. Heck!! What's a little acetic acid down one's top?

Although they felt lost in their new environment, unacquainted with any one in the castle except their close friends, the Nippers were able to take out their frustrations in the classrooms. Driving their tutors crazy by jumping from desk to desk, throwing jelly tots at everything that moved in the room, passing notes to the floor below by way of the window shade cord, and taping the typing bell so it would not ring for the next class were just a few of the antics of the Nippers. With techniques such as these, the Nippers were able to harass their tutors to no end. In fact, "Nipper" became a dreaded word among the professional scholars.

In their first year at Central, the Nippers were exposed to the ways of the castle. They learned quickly many talents such as cramming for exams, faking their homework, and creating quite realistic excuses for being late. At the top of the castle lived the King, quite a friendly guy, who had been bestowed the title "Your Majesty, Happy Jack Hamilton". If one did not happen to meet the King, as he roamed about the castle, one had the pleasure of hearing his majestic voice everyday during the announcements. (cough... cough...) "Was that room 315 at 2:20 or Room 220 at 3:15?"

To the right of the King was his chief advisor, the Right Honourable E. G. Neigh. This man had the difficult task of disciplining the most radical students at the Castle. Often, he would be seen lurking in the shadows waiting to pounce on students who were wandering in the halls at the forbidden hours of lunch time.

The first year at Central passed quickly and MOST of the students and tutors survived. In fact the majority of Nippers returned to the castle for another four years with the various titles of Grades 10, 11, 12, and 13. During these years, our heroes and heroines saw a few changes. Part of the old castle was torn down and a new addition was built. No longer did they have the atmosphere of the medieval days but the gay decor of the enlightened age. They lost the drafty halls to more modern conveniences... a heating system that would not work.

In the third year, Chief Advisor E. G. Neigh gave up his position to the Honourable J. A. Miller (whose initials, incidentally, spell JAM). At the turning of the fourth year, King Hamilton abdicated his title and Prince Bruce Buckingham (also known as "Brucie") was crowned King of Central.

With the passing years, our heroes and heroines had matured into young adults and the new administrators were lucky enough to become acquainted with the Grade 13's at the peak of their maturity. No longer did this group act like childish Nippers. Instead, they put their knowledge to practical use. Some displayed talents as radio broadcasters on the morning announcements. . . . Two court jesters in particular. Some of the math wizards tested their skills in probability by holding coin toss tournaments in the students' lounge. The physics students even disproved the law of gravity when the forks they threw into the air did not come down. However, to the basic Art student, a ceiling full of cutlery was an object of beauty.

The Grade 13's learned, that experience is the best teacher, and they proceeded to prove this point by holding Grade 13 parties, but that is another story.

As for the relationship of these Grade 13's to the rest of the school, it must be said that they bestowed the same favours on the New Nippers as they themselves had received five years previously. As their last year rolled on, the Grade 13's realized they had become very close to each other and to their tutors. Our heroes and heroines were no longer longer dreaded by the professional scholars, (just mildly feared). They came to realize also that their King and His Chief Advisor had done much for them that year. In fact, they were in anguish when the Honourable J. A. Miller was kidnapped at Hallowe'en and the King was threatened by evil forces. It must be mentioned, as well, that the president of the Students' round table, Sir B. Jenkins and her cohort Robin of Bye arranged for the Bay City Rollers to come to Central's aid. The Grade 13's continued interest in the castle was shown by their participation in Royal Pageants, Jousting tournaments, Majestic Balls and Currie Dinners.

As the year came to an end, the Grade 13's were able to look back over the previous five years, and remember the good times and the bad times they had shared. Times that drew them closer to each other and times that made them realize the value of friends.

As well as that, they realized how much they owed to their tutors, to their parents, and to the Administration for the help and encouragement they had received during their stay at the castle.

And it is for this reason that I am here to night, telling you this story. To say "thank you" to all these people is not enough, but you can be assured that the memories of Central will always stay with us.

The King is still on his throne with his Chief Advisor and the tutors are still being harassed but by other up and coming heroes and heroines. Our group has gone on to further adventures. Each of them will take their own paths through the forest, tripping over branches and falling in streams, but they will get up again and continue on for Central surely has taught them endurance. And by doing their best in all their future endeavours, they WILL live happily ever after.

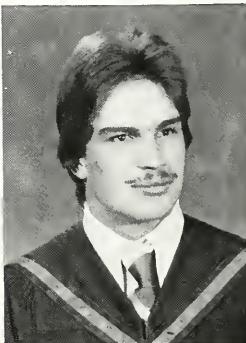

BEATRICE ADAIR

We've seen her boogie in the halls, We've seen her run cross-country, We've seen her put hours and hours of effort into Central's Cheerleading squad, but next year we will see her put a little hip movement into her education at Western or Waterloo.

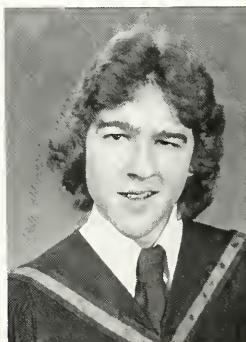

KATHY ANDERSON

Kathy was unavailable for comment, but her future plans may include college and a certain man.

ELIZABETH ASHBOURNE
Lizzie has kept the boys in the back rows "occupied" and failing while she took home nine-ties. Her brains and friendly personality will help her in medicine at McMaster. In the future remember: "Call Ashbourne for action!"

SUSAN BALL

Susan has managed to show her expertise both on and off the playing field. She plans to pursue her interests in fisheries, wildlife, and wild life. Good luck, Suzie!

ANDY BERG

Between occasional studies (of the fairer sex), and questionable photography (fun in the darkroom), Andy plans to jog his way to fame and fortune at either Waterloo or in the United States.

SUSAN BILLO

In past years, "Sue Bear", our one and only human laughing machine, has filled the halls with her merry cheer. Central salutes Sue-Hal Hal Hal Lots of luck with your future plans at Wilfrid Laurier University.

DEB BOWRA

Deb is known at Central for flashing . . . (pictures), for having many a thirsty Thursday and for gassing-up her and the "Demon" for many a lo-on-one week-end!

KENNY BRIEN

Kenny's stay at Central was a tremendous success. What else can we say to the co-editor of this year's Collegian? The past five years went so quickly, and now seem like one long math equation. However, Kenny will continue chortling while he plans to study M.A.P. ping and matrices at university next year.

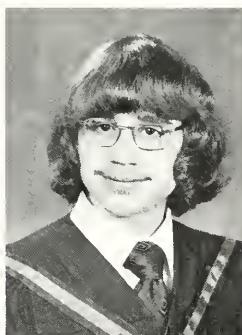

WENDY BRIGHTWELL

Brights has taken an active part in Students' Council, and G.A.A., besides skating several nights a week and working for her dad. PAM CASE

The itch of river rafting and mountaineering lures Pam westward to adventure. For challenge and experience, she also plans to farm in a third world country.

TOM BROWNIE

Brownie, Central's "president of vice" has finally finished five years of school trips and elevator rides. He plans to take his knowledge of fast cars and loose . . . to W.L.U.

PHIL BRYANT

You might have seen Phil flying around town in his little pink truckie delivering . . . ahah . . . flowers, this past year. Phil, as one of our six year vets, can't wait to move on to bigger and better things. He might be at Fanshawe next year taking Architectural Tech, if they'll take him.

ROGER BUTSON

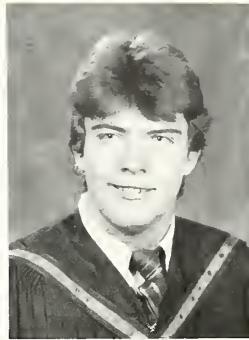

Roger has always been a "favorite" of Mr. Hildenbrand. He now moves on to greater challenges.

JACK CELEJ

Jack breezed through five academic and athletic years at Central and still managed to find time for . . . He plans to study Architecture and football at Waterloo next year.

LEE CHISHOLM

Lee directed her many talents over the past five years towards band and cheerleading. Although undecided about her future, Lee will undoubtedly razzle dazzle her way into hearts wherever she goes.

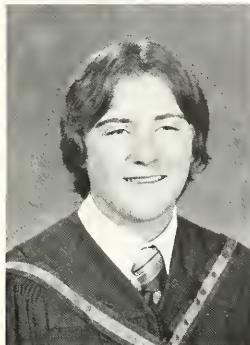

PAUL CLELLAND

Football Football Football

CHRIS COLLINGS

After five years of chaos, "Bollex" is truckin' on up to new hunting grounds (Laurentian) to pursue active game in Sports Administration.

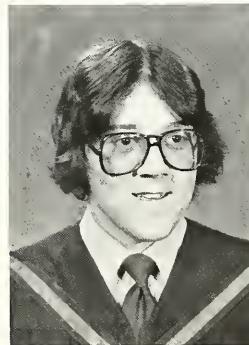

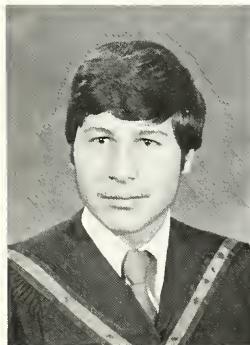

MIKE COTTENIE

Mike has been described as "devilish". He is more widely known for his nightly exploits than his academic achievements. Good luck!

JOHN DeJAGER

After five years of checking hockey scores and reviving the Third Reich at Central, John (alias Little General) is going to liberate all pharmacy students at U. of T.

SHAWN DENSTEDT

Shawn is hoping to go crazy in the very near future.

JOHN DEVLIN

Being under parental supervision for the last five years, J.D. is leaving Central, keeping his M.V.P. throwing arm in shape at the local "factory". His male chauvinism has yet to prove to any that he is the superior being. Maybe at university John!

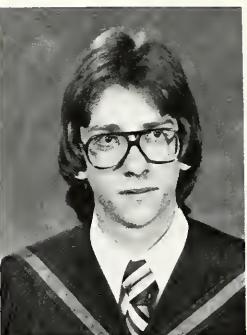

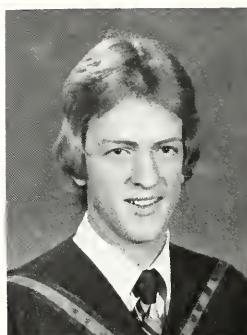

LINDA DIEGEL

Mama Diegel is leaving for Fanshawe with an "executive" tucked under her wine. Central's hall will ring with her laughter for EVER. The "rye and winkle" is on us!

BRIAN DONALDSON

Problem: How to get to grade 13 without being a Nipper? Brian's solution: move here in the middle of grade 11 from St. Thomas 11 "Lots o' luck" next year in computer science at Waterloo.

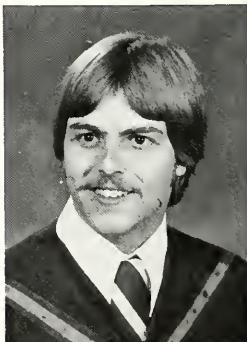

SHELLEY DOW

Shelley is patiently waiting for the Bicentennial Party. To kill time she will be studying veterinary medicine at Guelph.

ALICE ESPENSEN

We have been told (by sources who will not be named) that Alice spent an exciting summer last year reading Harlequin romances. Good luck and may all your dreams come true.

DON FRYFOGEL

"Jimmy Fry", having been around Central for five years, has been inspired to go out into the world and sell drugs, (legally of course as a Pharmacist). Good luck Don!

PAUL DOUGHTY

After five years Paul has decided to move on. Next year he intends to attend Wilfrid Laurier in an accounting course. Good Luck.

WENDY ELLIS

Wendy is one of our influences for excitement in our school, but so far she hasn't thought of anything. Wendy is now going to France to think about it.

STEPHEN FRYER

The person who misses any class at any chance he can get has decided to move on to Fanshawe where he will be attending Child Worker classes in the future.

BOB GEARING

"Herman Goering" (alias "6-pack") plans to reprogramme computers at Waterloo so that it can help him to re-unite the 3rd Reich and take over the pubs. His advice to us is: "Take two beer, and call me in the morning."

DAN GERBER

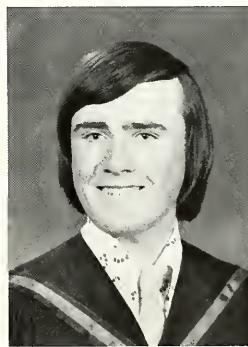

Gerbs did a little school between soccer, football, wrestling and managed to come up with a pretty fair average. Good luck to Gerbs in business next year W.L.U.

TERRY GORDON

Between lunch table picnics, studying and "Cinderella" movies, Terry has finally made it through five years at Central. Second runner-up for P.O. Champ, we wish her luck next year at college (university?) getting her M.R.S.

JOY GOULD

After only two years at Central, Joy has decided to give college the privilege of her presence.

JOHN GROOTHUIZEN

When asked about his future goals, "Grootzie" stood still, stared into the distance and replied, "Duh, what?" He later decided on math at U of W.

BETH GLEADALL

Beth has rambled along Central's halls for five glorious, fun-filled years. She has lent her various talents to the prefects and squeaking and squawking in band. Beth plans to continue her rambling on, only down different halls. What fun, more education! ! ! Good luck and keep dancing.

KAREN GOREN

Karen will always be remembered for her musical talents. She now moves on to find new audiences!

STEPHEN GRAY

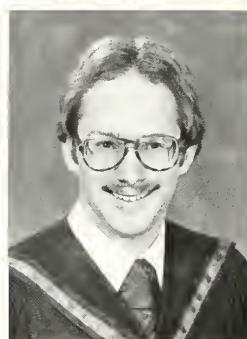

Surprisingly enough, this Milvertonian has survived five years of learning at Central. Next year he hopes to attend either Centralia or Ridgetown Agricultural College.

JOANNE HAGGARTY

Central's No. 1 French Horn player is packing it up and leaving us. Joanne plans to take her talents to university and do some serious work. Good Luck, Jo!

"Snoopy" has been playing the piano and starring in school plays since he hit Central a few years back. Danny plans to take his golden fingers on to bigger things next year. Good luck, Dan!

TIM HEINRUCK

Tim has had an enjoyable five years at Central as a result of his participation in "extra-curricular" activities! Future aspirations include becoming a famous liquid refreshment taster.

RON HERMAN

Mental Coach plans to take business at WLU or Western to learn how to set up a chain of combination beer-liquor and snowshovel stores.

MARILYN HOLMES

"Homely" has spent the last five years at Central-most of which were spent in the gym and on her daily trip between here and St. Paul's. Our G.A. A. pres. is off to Western or Queen's to pursue a career as a physiotherapist. Will they be ready for the girl with the hair?

BOB HARTLEIB

During Bob's recent trip from Northwestern, he pursued studies which involved beard growing and social gatherings at the Queen's. Next year may involve Ryerson and Hotel Management.

TREVOR HENEY

After spending five jolly good years at Central, our "Schultz" will continue to "Reach for the Top" at Western. Future plans include meeting the Queen and Monty Python face-to-face? Best of Luck, Trevor!

TERRY HIGGINS

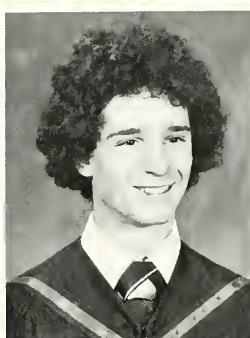

Terry reached a state of minimum energy and maximum disorder in his final year at Central. Next year he plans to study math and science at an institute of higher learning.

JANE HONDERICH

Jane's favourite hobby for her five years at Central was hair growing. Her future plans have not yet been revealed. Good luck!

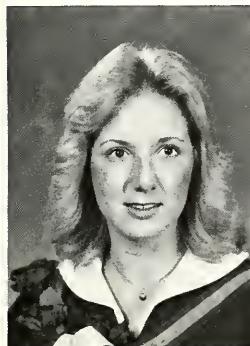

NOLAN ISACOVICS

"Kronin" has suffered through five years of Mr. Neigh's mother's quotes, Mr. Mavor's haircuts, and Mr. Douglas' boy scout stories, and now hopes to find other such loonies at U. of T. (?)

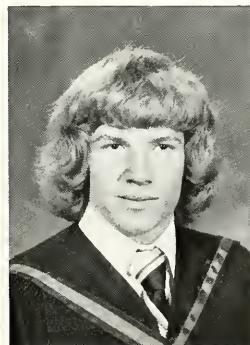

RUTH KLEINHENZ

Ruth is actually quite dumb but, because of her body, she passed with honours in every class she had a male teacher. Her life ambition is to be team mascot for the Oakland Raiders.

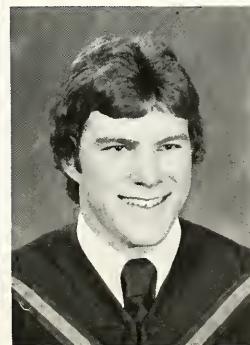

TOM KYDD

Spud defected from Northwestern a while back and soon got into the stream of things. He plans to leave a certain cheerleader behind and go to Waterloo next year.

MITCH LATHAM

"Tiny" is going to take his "dinky toys" and his "pizza special" delivery car into the R.C.M.P. where he hopes to become a mail sorter.

CARLA JOHNSTON

Carla has fine ability with "le français". She's back this year to finish up her year five. Bonne chance!

PEGGY KRIESZ

For five years Peg has amazed us with her sparkling personality and superior mind! (?) Next year, in order to make Canada the best dressed nation in the world, Peg will drag her sewing machine to a fashion designing course at any college that will accept her! Best of Luck!

WENDY LAM

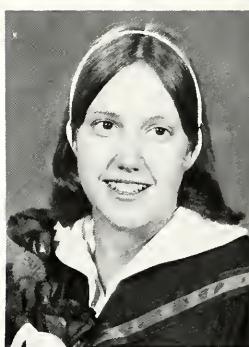

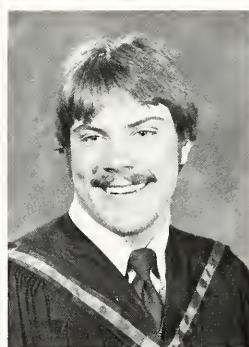

Wendy did well in school again this year despite having to defend herself from witty comments at lunchtime. Anyway, we know she won't forget carrots and fruitcake when she attends Western next year. Best of luck, Wendy!

STEVE LEEMING

S.L. excelled at every sport Central offered. As a matter of fact, he even started some teams of his own: a streaking team, a pie-eating team, a drinking team, and a few other unmentionables! Now famous for his non-existent wit, Steve plans to go anywhere where they get their kicks putting a round thing through a hoop on the wall, ceiling . . .

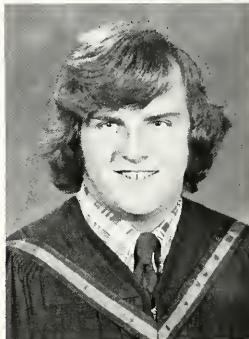

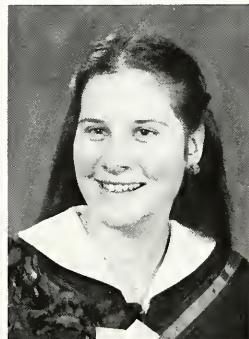

GARY LINGARD

After going to bed every night by nine on the Quebec trip, Duke was completely rested for this year's trip. Gary's ambition is to find the home of that whooper, so, good fishing, Gary, and so long! Central's loss is Western's gain.

SHELLEY MacDERMID

After spending a year struggling through calculus, only to find that she didn't need it anymore for university, Shelley has decided that she'll probably give Guelph a try. Her four years at Central have been . . . interesting (and that's being tactful). Anyway, all her best wishes go with her classmates and this school next year.

KATHY MACUKIEWICZ

Kathy worked hard during her five years at Central, often being seen at school doing homework until 5:00 p.m. or later! Her pleasant personality and industrious attitude should stand her in good stead at university next year. Good luck, Kathy!

BEN MAGAGNIN

Ben is planning to work in California for a while and then he would like to study the arts at York or in Europe. Good-bye Central.

LAURA LITTEL

Lovely Little Laura came to the No. 1 school in Year 3. Laura hopes to receive a volleyball scholarship for further education in Florida, providing she can continue to dive without breaking her arm. Best of Luck!

STEWART MACSORLEY

As the Kams' heftiest half-back, Baby Stuey was named the official bouncer at parties all over town. Next year he plans to enter a business course at Laurier. W.L.U. gains three things: Stuey's bronzed baby cleats, his mathematical genius and his witty sayings (Rob . . .). Good luck!

JOAN MAHLE

Joanie, the bouncing blonde, has managed to brighten our halls for five long years. Another member of the "Spread Happiness Club", her zany antics and avoiding of classes have kept her sanity. P.T.'s include sharing a locker with S.S., music and the Q.H. on Friday nights. Future plans include social work or bouncing off the walls at Ryerson.

ERIC MAHAR

Eric has entertained us for five years now at assemblies and concerts. He is now taking his musical ability and leaving. May all your audiences love you!

SANDRA MARION

As soon as Sandra can decide whether to travel to France, to become a nurse or to settle down with her favorite ditch digger in good ole Milton, she promises to let us know. Good luck in whatever you choose!

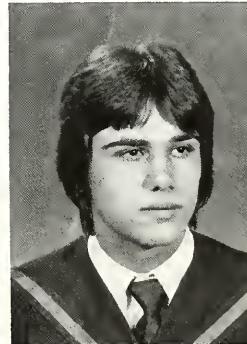

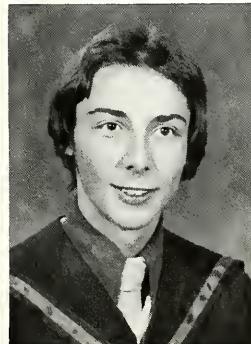

CAROLYN MARTIN

After returning once more to the beloved halls of Central, Carolyn's laughter could once again be heard. Carolyn is not sure of her future plans but she will have to "play it by ear."

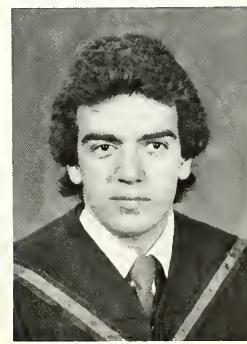

SIMON MARTIN

Simon returned this year because, being English and stubborn, he can't get enough of a good thing. Future plans foresee leather jackets and old ladies on the head with tea bags and crumpets while making his way out west. Look out California!

DIANE McCANCE

Diane is still around after five years of trying to "supposedly" gain an education. The only education she has gained is sightseeing in St. Mary's. Otherwise she plans to go to Wilfrid Laurier University. Good Luck.

BROCK MARTIN

Brock has been very successful during his five years at Central, in wrestling and all other aspects. Next year he might be seen at a university pursuing a wrestling career.

CINDY MARTIN

Silence in class. Hear a giggle? That's Cindy! "Mouth", president of the Spread Happiness Club, is going to keep smiling - on stage maybe.

RICK MAZZANTI

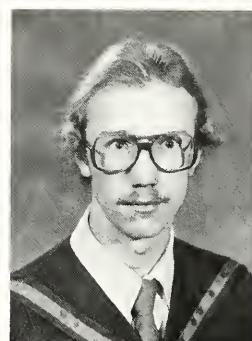

Rick found his five years at Central "a piece of cake." With a minimum amount of work and a maximum amount of good looks, Rick found the limit of his function here at S.C.S.S. He plans to write a book called "How to get 100 percent in Math III the slack way." Best of luck in your future endeavours, Rick.

JEFF McCANN

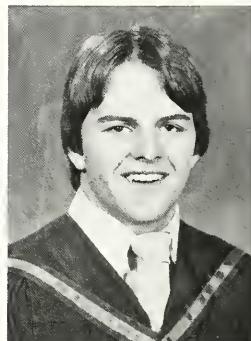

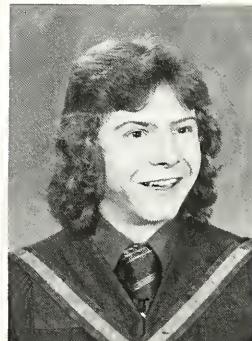

Jeff decided to enlist in the six year plan and is finally off to Ryerson to study bacteriology. Right Arm!

MIKE McGRAW

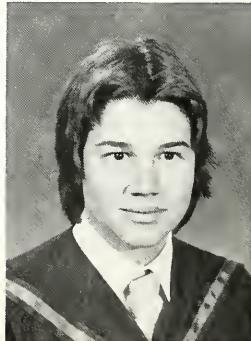

As soon as the weather is good, Mike can be seen travelling around the easy way - by motorbike. Good luck in the future!

ROSS McMILLAN

After coming from the country, Ross has found school in the big city quite different. Next year he will try accounting at Waterloo before applying at Blackstone.

BRENDA MITCHELL

Besides dribbling basketballs, spiking volleyballs, and officiating games, Mitch also found time for other sporting (?) activities, which included solving chemistry problems and writing English essays. Best wishes in all future endeavours, Brenda!

DAVE MOORE

The past and present are for they and them. The future is for me and thee. Scuz eggs for everyone! Finest kind!!

VAUGHAN McKAY

Vaughan (alias 12-pack) sees red when he thinks about his past mischievous activities (band trips). Next year he will be in Computer Science at either Waterloo or Western.

DAN McPHERSON

Dan had so much success last year (with girls) that he decided to return to Central for another try. Danny plans to graduate and continue on to university. Good luck, Dan!

MILT MOFFAT

In the past five years at Central, Milt has concentrated his efforts on trying to keep all his notes for all his subjects all in one binder without losing more than ten pages per day. Central's heart-throb could always be recognized by the trail of swooning girls and loose-leaf papers behind him. Best of luck next year, Milt!

MAYUR NATHWANI

Mayur joined us two years ago. He has no words to describe the "Central experience". Good luck!

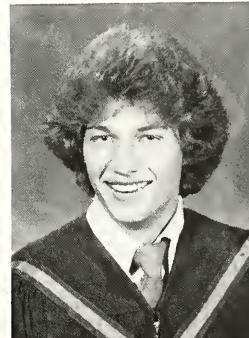

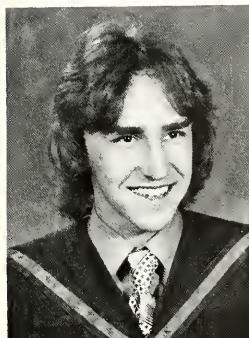

CHARLES NEEDLES

Charles has spent five years at Central. Enough is enough! Future plans could include taking over the family business...

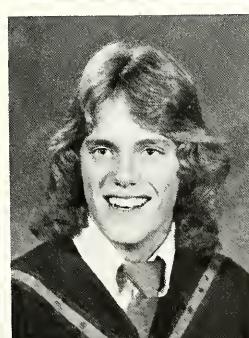

ANDY NEVIDOMSKIS

Andy just couldn't find words to describe his "interesting" stay at Central. Best wishes for the future!

KEN NICHOLSON

Ken has walked around Central's halls stealing hearts left and right without even noticing! Best of luck and may you never lose your "talent"!

ANNE MARIE O'DONOVAN

Aside from being a great scholar, "Annie" has contributed greatly to athletics, students' council and social life at Central. Future plans include include studies at Western or Waterloo to ultimately become a business tycoon.

PAUL NEMETH

DIRK NEWBERY

Dirk, for the past five years, has partied his time away. For the future, Dirk plans to lay bricks.

JOANNE NYENHUIS

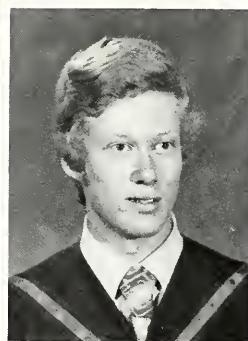

She has had fun during her brief attendance at Central. Best of luck in the future when Joanne will be working in London and attending Western part-time.

MARYANNE O'NEILL

After spending five years at Central, something academic must have rubbed off on Maryanne, but what? Maryanne plans to attend Wilfrid Laurier and start her own business. Look out McDonalds! !

MARTY ORT

Marty has really enjoyed his stay at Central. He plans to make his way to Western and to eventually enter the law profession.

MARILYN PATTERSON

After five years at Central, Marilyn has learned to love snow, square dancing and studying. Conestoga may be lucky to get this famed hockey player and academic genius to join them. Good luck anyways, Marilyn.

DEB PAULI

Deb brought her smiling face to Central this year and hopes to extend her scholastic ability and her love life at Fanshawe. Good luck, Deb!

LUCY POLSONI

Lucy is leaving now, but she has no words to describe her years at Central. How about "different"?

CHRIS PAGE

After pausing for five successful years, Chris decides that it's time to be moving on from the bright halls of Central to the brighter halls of University of Toronto. Best of luck always, Chris!

TAMMY PAULEN

Tammy is on her way to Guelph next year with her bubbly laughter, her gorgeous body, her Farrah-Fawcett hair-do, and her blushing face. Among doing other things there, she may become a chemist, or a scientific genius, or a mad scientist, or a . . . Best of luck, Tammy!

BRAD PECKHAM

"Percy's" future will include: road hockey, golf, drinking beer, insulting librarians and generally doing anything in his power to avoid getting a job.

KAREN REIBELING

Karen is noted for faking her way through English tests and talking about a certain cheezy person. She hopes to fake her way through nursing school and end up cleaning bedpans. Good luck!

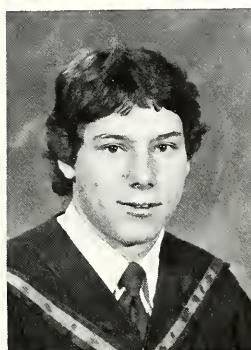

MARI-JANE REID

Mari-Jane has doodled her way through five years at Central and plans to study the visual arts next year at Waterloo University.

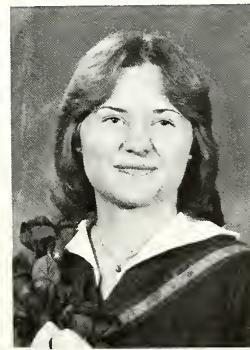

GREG RIOU

Greg is known as "Write-Off" in our school. He gets right off on drinking, drinking, etc. Greg is thinking of university next year. Watch out Wilfrid Laurier!

TRACEY ROBERTSON

Tracey hopes to wiggle, wobble or bounce to Europe. If that fails, she's going to Waterloo to socialize with beer and men or men and beer.

NAOMI ROSS

Nom (Kneime), who will also answer to Rossi and Dimples, but prefers Stretch (cause she grew a whole cm this year), has excelled at both basketball and volleyball and has been outspoken in Students' Council and, of course, the GAA. Next year, Naomi will take her talents to Waterloo to study Kinesiology.

KIM REIS

Next year Kim will seek his fortune in an occupation anywhere between Blackstone and neurosurgery.

CATHERINE ROBERTSON

Catherine is like summer holidays; everyone loves her! The only time she isn't smiling is when she's playing her flute. Central will miss Catherine. Best of luck in music at Queen's Tsunami!

MARILYN ROES

After playing the French horn for five years, Marilyn is ready for a better looking and feeling mouth piece. Her smiling face will cheer up the halls of a college, whichever one she decides on. Keep smiling Marilyn and your dreams will come true.

PATTI SALTER

Patti has spent five long, enjoyable (?) years at Central. Next year she plans to continue in her favorite subject - Accounting at W.L.U. Mr. McKay will just have to try to get along without the answers.

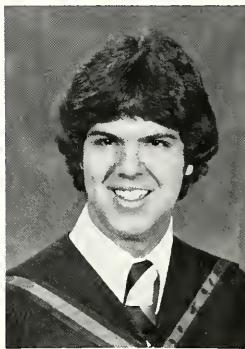

ERIK SANSON

Erik has worked hard this year and has obtained high enough marks to earn our COOD scholarship. Erik will use this generous award to study either Zip Codes or Tee Pee Engineering.

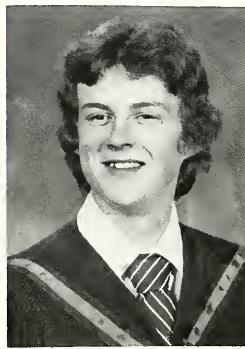

ANGELA SCHAEFER

During our years at Central, each of us tries to give something to a particular club or activity. In Ang's case, she gave her knees to Central's volleyball squad. Next year we'll find Ang sitting at a teller's desk! Best of luck!

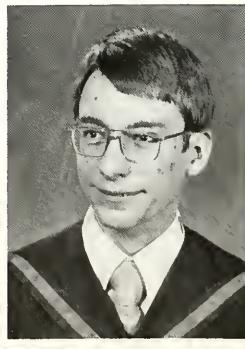

BOB SCHMITTE

Bob intends to be a learned mathematician because his math teachers always find it easy to mark his tests.

TIM SCHRADER

Next year Tim plans to take his violin, whistling and store of sick jokes to Toronto to enrol in a science course at the University of Toronto. He might perhaps enter medicine or law. Also, in the not-too-distant future, he hopes to gain his A.R.C.T. in music.

CATHY SCANTLEBURY

After spending the last five years in silence (?), Shy + 2 is either off to the Shub races or off to conduct the Spanish Inquisition at the local jail.

HEINZ SCHAEFER

Disco Heinz has managed to dance his way into the hearts of millions; at least into one A.M.O.D.'s sewing box. Future plans include Queens, lead role in "Land of the Giants, Part II" or a suntan lotion booth in the tropics... German (Mr. Michael) will never be the same. Good luck, Heinz.

JENNIFER SCHNEIDER

Jennifer came as an English nipper, left as an English graduate and may enter University bilingual. How? By going to France first, of course.

GLORIA SCHUMACHER

And who said carrots weren't good for the eyes? Gloria, with those big brown eyes and innocent (? ! ? !) smile, is off to Western to study English. Look out London, here she comes!

JANET SCOTT

Janet's friendly smile has brightened up Central's halls for quite awhile. We'll sure be sorry to see her go. Best of luck with your future endeavours, Janet!

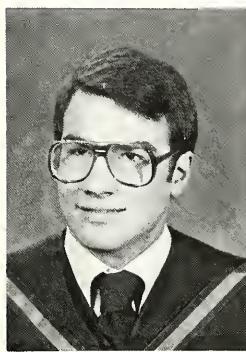

STEVE SEEBERT

After five diligent years in the "Halls of Central," Steve plans to receive his "E.B." diploma and venture out into the world of Business Management. Best of luck for a bright and rewarding future!

STEWERT SHACKLETON

"Stew" finally made the best decision of his life. He transferred from St. Mary's to Central. Stewart just came back from a trip to Sweden last year. Are Islands really more fun?!

BARB SHERWOOD

Spaz has not only demonstrated her abilities on the basketball court (as Captain of the Senior team) but she has also shown what she can do in volleyball (practically nothing, except keep score). Next year Barb will be at Guelph, studying to become a forest ranger...oops, sorry Spaz, "wild life biologist."

NORA SHIVAS

Nora will leave behind at this school a peaceful guidance center, a few grey-haired math teachers, and the echoes of her "I don't knows". She's off to greener pastures to study Botany.

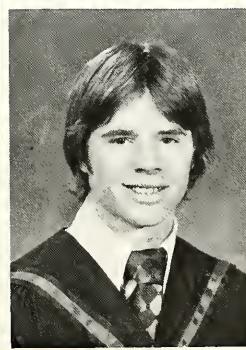

MARNIE SHORE

Many an opponent has been wounded on the volleyball court from Killer's spike, not to mention many teammates, too. Oh well, we probably wouldn't have got through five years without Marnie to give us all the right answers! Look out, computers! Killer's on her way!

MIKE SIMONS

At the end of this school year, Mike is hoping to be exported to the States for lacrosse, if they accept him. Best of luck, Mike!

JANET SINCLAIR

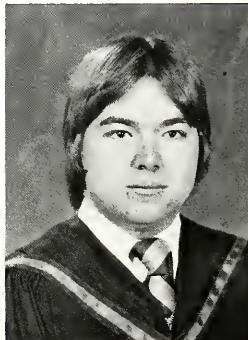

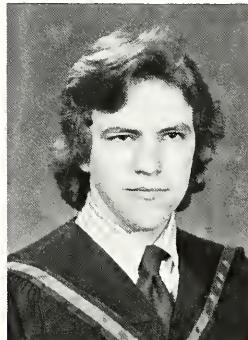

Janet considers her past five years at Central a real experience (one which she would not recommend to anyone). Next year she hopes to be at U. of T. in Pharmacy or U. of O. for Business or

LEEEANNE SIKKEN

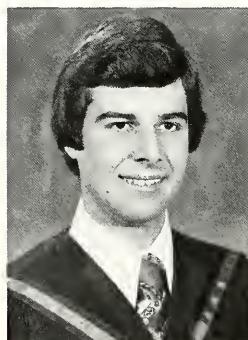

Between candy-striping, snow storms, selling groceries, and the very special guy who went to the school across the river, Leeanne managed to make it through five years here. Best wishes in nursing!

BOB STEELE

After two years of trying to find out what the score is, Bob might finally do something that interests him, or he might go to some unknown faculty of education that accepts him. Good luck!

FRITZ STEIGMEIER

Fritz will take his comb, his skis, his accordian, and his beer Stein to U. of T. in a chemical engineering course after he somehow begs, borrows, or bribes a 70 in chemistry from Mr. Neigh. Good luck! (Buy him a basketball!)

CHERYL STEWART

After demolishing the hotel room on the Quebec trip in Year 4 (You'd be upset too if you had to share a double room with THREE other people!), she has decided to take her destructive talents to a higher level! Whichever university or college it will be, they better be prepared for "Hurricane Cheryl"! Today, hotel rooms, tomorrow, whole dormitories!

VICKI SKINNER

Central's halls will return to normal next year when our howdy doody girl heads on to Mohawk to begin a pow wow! ! Best of luck Skins! !

SCOTT STEELE

Scotty, our vivacious prez, believes in the "presidency as a sacred institution". But then again, he also believes in the Easter Bunny. Favorite pt's include rides with the "mass-murderer", sharing a locker with JM, parties with SJ, and Fridays in the QH. Next year, he'll hopefully take his talents to Western to study social sciences. Good Luck!

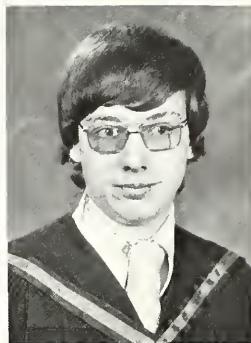

KAREN STEIHENSON

Karen has now finished five years at Central. In the future she plans to acquire her M.R.S. degree.

ROSEMARY STEWART
Rosemary's favourite interest at Central seems to be the Senior Band (? !) Best of luck in years to come!

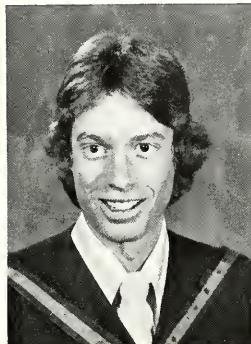

JUDY STOREY

Judy will be continuing her education at the University of Guelph next year, where she will put into practice her experiences of the past five years (cramming for exams at the last minute, faking her homework, etc.) in order to achieve a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree. Good Luck in all your future efforts, Judy!

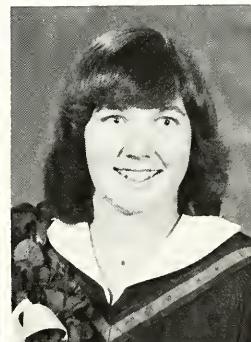

KIRK SWANSON

After five long years in Central's familiar halls, Kirk plans to move out to visit with Smokey the Bear and attend a school of Forestry at Lindsay, Ontario. Best of Luck, Kirk.

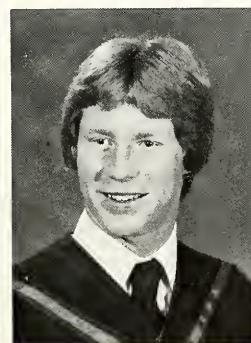

JANE TEMPLETON

To little Janie, everything at Central seems "humongous". Next year, she will study interior-decorating at Fanshawe; and we all know who's interior she plans to decorate!

STEVE TOLTON

After five years of school, hockey, and girls, (but not in that order) Tolts is off to Toronto to pursue a business education.

PAUL STRATHEE

Paul, after spending the last five years playing chess and war games, skipping classes, and living at "the factory", has decided to move to downtown Toronto and take life easy; possibly attending Radio College of Canada in his spare time.

PEARL TEITELBAUM

Poil, "The Mass Murderer", is not a sister of Charles Manson but rather a full-fledged member of Central's "Let's Spread Happiness" club. Favourite activities include sipping at the Q.H. and running stop signs. Her boisterous laugh may be heard next year at York as she enters math and education. Ha, ha!

SANDI THOMPSON

After five years, Sam has reached the conclusion that there's more to life than homework. Maybe in a year she'll tackle a five-year audiology course.

CHARLENE TRAFAGANDER

Between trips to Florida and tonsilectomies, Charlene has managed to sweep through grade thirteen at Central with her test tube in hand and a smile on her lips. Next year she plans to take a business course at W.L.U. Best of Luck, Char!

JANE TURKINGTON

Jane will be remembered at Central for her amazing ability to talk incessantly through eight classes a day without getting a blistered tongue. The atmosphere will be a little less lively next year without her. She'll be sounding off at Ryerson in Toronto. Good luck, Turk!

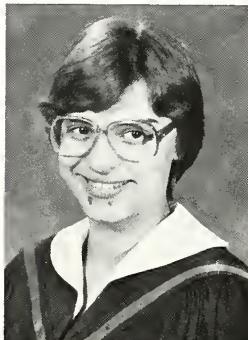

JIM UNIAC

After becoming one of the famous "juvies", Boeher concentrated all his efforts in more academic fields such as: parties, road hockey, lacrosse, women, and bus trips to sunny Florida. Luck to Boeher for big things in the future!

MARY ELLEN VAN deWETERING

"Me" is (check all):
—totally (and possibly criminally) insane
—captain of Central's gymnasitics team
—never early
—glad it's over!

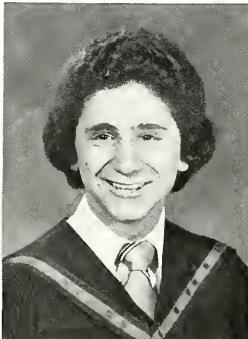

ANITA VAN DEN HURK

The basketball team, the volleyball team, the tennis team, the track team, the students' council, the school newspaper, the G.A.A., and the prefects would like to thank Anita for her contributions to their organizations over the past five years. A special thanks comes from Mr. Slater for the two test tubes Anita left unbroken in Lab station 5. Best of luck with engineering at Waterloo, Hurk!

DAN VITO

Central is losing its number one ladies' man this year. Dan spent most of his time fighting off attacks and making bets with the math teachers on last week's football game. Dan's smile and sense of humour are sure to bring him success at University next year, and in his courses too! Best of Luck!

DAVE VOLLMER

Dave's interests include frequenting the "Factory" with a favourite buddy. Perhaps he'll go into "factory" work!

JACKIE WALLER

Jackie, driven to hysteria by the lack of opinion without our student body, is willing her "editorship" to the Waller Dynasty. Bigger and Better newspapers beckon her: Associated Press, New York Times, . . . ?

SUE WATERS

Sue has always been a big blower in the band, and as a result she has been offered a job with the Milverton Volunteer Department band. She has her heart set, however, on eventually becoming a lumberjack.

KIMBERLY WEBSTER

Amidst her travelling, Kimberly has managed to squeeze in 4 exciting (17) years at Central. Next year she's on to Georgian College on a plumbing apprenticeship (7).

LAURIE WHITNEY

After five years at Central, Laurie still hasn't decided whether to focus her life on experimenting in a lab, on a farm or on a certain "Neuf". Laurie could always be heard joking in the halls or making plans for the weekend's activities (don't forget your proof or....).

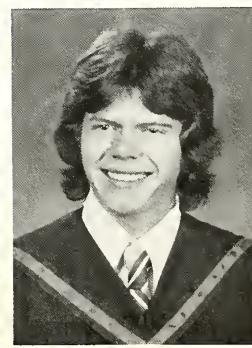

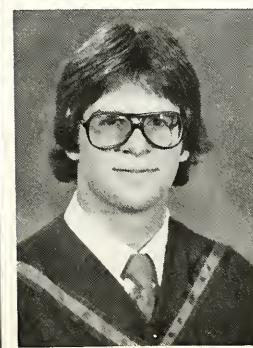

VICKI WILHELM

For five years now, Vicki has trucked around Central's hallowed halls and some people have still "overlooked" her! Next year she plans to put her bubbly personality and abundance of knowledge to good use in a psychology course, unless something more promising makes an appearance, i.e., a man!

JOHN WILSON

Everyone's favourite hockey star is now skating on to new ice!

LORI WHARRAN

After five years at Central, Lori plans to continue the 'good times' at Western! She hopes to go into either physical therapy or nursing. Good Luck!

JANICE WILHELM

Janice was too shy to give her comments on her stay at Central, but we're sure it was "the experience of a lifetime"! Good luck in all your endeavours!

MICHELE WILLMER

Michele's constant applied forces of cheerfulness have differentiated an equilibrium that shifted with uniform acceleration towards GREAT TIMES at Central. Future plans? . . . might include a centrefield in a Canadian Tire monthly . . . appliance section (anyone want to buy a "fun" warmer?) Keep on grinning, the toothpaste look is always in!

BRYAN WRAY

Bryan, the walking computer, has the ambition to find a solution to prevent his brain cells from multiplying, so as to let the rest of his body catch up.

RICK BALL: Rick didn't tell us anything about his plans so we just wish him well in whatever he does!

IAN BELL: Duff's plans for next year include a bit of overseas education and travel. He'll be back in '79 "to see what certain friends are up to."

LINDA BENNETT: Linda is going to limp onwards to bigger and better things! Good luck in the future!

GABRIELLE BOCHYNEK: The "blond brute" is undecided about her future plans, but she feels she would like a career in modelling for fruit-of-the-loom underwear.

MIKE BORYSUIK: Mik is perhaps better known for his extra-curricular activities . . . Good luck in the future!

NADINE BUCK: Nadine has "acted her way" through four years at Central. She now moves on to bigger and better things!

DONNA DUH: Donna is going to make her way to Kitchener next year where she hopes to learn the art of hairdressing. We wish her luck.

DAVE FISCHER: "Fish" is finally skipping his way out of Central after four years. His favourite pastime was definitely the extra-curricular activities. His future plans have as yet not been made public.

SUSAN HAUSLEITNER: Suzie plans to use her German drinking skills in England next year. Good luck and remember your buddies from the Factory!

LIZ JOHNSTON: Liz has enjoyed her four years at Central, especially this year because it's the last! Next year she'll be off to "flying the friendly skies".

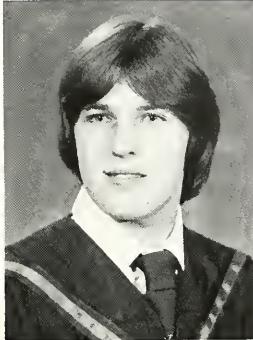

CINDY JORDAN: Cindy intends to graduate from school at the end of this year, for she wants to explore the working world. Cindy may work for a while and then go back to school the following year.

DONNA KACZMARCZYK: Donna's fondest memories of Central were the holidays. She plans to make up the lost time in Australia next year.

KATHY KELLER: Kathy's extracurricular activities won't merit school letters. She's a fierce debater and basketballer. Her kazzol scholarship fell through. She may join the Forces. Watch Canada gain allies!

JULIE LIGHTFOOT: Julie's only future plan at the moment is to travel to Florida in search of the perfect man. Look out men!

EARL LOWE: Earl has now made his Grade 12 and he figures enough is enough. Good luck in the coming years!

BARB McCAULEY: Barb is one of those people who brightens up everyone's day. Even though Barb has managed to brave the halls at Central and to enjoy them as well, Barb plans to work a year and then attend college in the field of Recreation.

DIANE NEEDLES: Diane is bidding farewell to Central as she heads off to college.

SUSAN NESS: Susan has had a quiet stay at Central and in the end she still hasn't anything to say. Perhaps it's censored... Good Luck!

LYNDA O'KRAFKA: Because of a previous student from Central, Lynda has decided to apply for a job at an all-boy's school in Lakefield. Good luck next year!

BRENDA ORCHARD: After four years of running around the field hockey field, Brenda is going to start running around at Fanshawe College taking Child Care. Good luck in the future!

CONNIE OSPORN: Connie will pack up her books and head for a nursing school somewhere in Ontario. Good luck, Connie!

GLEN PATTERSON: Glen is absolutely speechless. After four years, he bids Central good-bye. But he didn't want to make any further comment!

DAVE PRICE: After spending four long years at Central, Dave will be glad to get out into the working world and hopefully make some money.

DESIREE RUBY: "Des" has spent four years studying (boys) at Central. Good luck in the future!

CAROL RYDER: Carol has brightened the halls of Central for three and a half years; now she feels it is time to move on. Next year Pooh will be leaving us and so will her locker door.

CHRIS SEMPSON: Bozo's future plans include travelling westward to become a cowgirl in a wild-west show.

KELLY SMITH: Kelly has spent most of his four years at Central skipping out as often as possible. But now he is really leaving and everyone will miss his antics. Future plans include professional bar hopping and party crashing.

NANCY THOMAS: Nancy came to us as a shy girl. This time at Central has made her as normal as the rest of us! Good luck in the future!

CARRIE TSALTAS: Carrie has successfully completed four years at SCSS by following the ideas laid down in a certain book. Next year, Carrie may attend a college of her choice. Good luck!

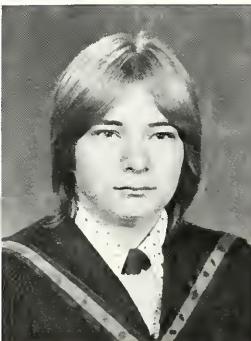

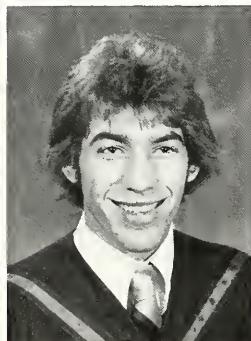

VICKY TULLY: Vicki is undecided about her future. She will likely continue working for another year at Sams-nite and try to do some travelling. Good luck, Vicki.

NANCY WILSON: After four years of cursing all the teachers in Central, Nancy has finally had enough!

PAUL WREFORD: Life is like a picture; paint it well.

JO-ANNE YOUNG: Jo-anne plans to graduate this year and go on to Conestoga College. She would like to care for children, but preferably not her own. Good luck in your future endeavours, Jo-anne!

CAROLE YUNIT: Carole has been making her way quietly through classes for four years now. After this much silence, she still has no comment on Central. Good luck!

DONNA ZAWADSKI: Donna has spent her four years at Central trying to be academic. Now she's off to something new. Best of luck!

On October 4, 1977, Central held its annual "Nipper Day", at which time the senior or students "welcomed" their Year Ones. As is usual, the nippers were required to dress up, the boys as "little old ladies" and the girls as "dirty old men". All students in Years 2-5 had privileges, with most being reserved for the Year Fives. As part of their costumes, the nippers were to wear signs prominently displaying the verse: "I'm a little nipper, bright and chipper. My name is . . ." The day ended officially with a party for the nippers that evening. On the whole, Nipper Day provided some fun and amusement for our Year Ones.

For the last thirteen years, Central has had a very devoted and dedicated man in the Physical Education Department: Mr. Faust. Now he is retiring.

Not only did he teach Phys. Ed., but he also taught Year I History. Year V's who had him for History in Year I will no doubt recall how he introduced himself the first day mentioning that "Faust" meant "fist". Of course, don't get the impression that he was an unkind, impatient person. If for example, a student were speaking during a class instead of listening or working, Mr. Faust would say very kindly, "Be quiet or I'll break your arm! "

During his tenure here, Mr. Faust saw, taught, and coached many students. The excellence of our school's athletic program is shown by the many honours our school has won. These fine results are due in no small way to Mr. Faust, as well as to the rest of the Phys. Ed. department.

By retiring this year, Mr. Faust can pursue further some of his personal interests including sports, fishing, theatre and music. With best wishes for the future, COLLEGIAN '78 and the rest of the student body bid you, Mr. Faust, good-bye.

Our Principal and Vice-Principal

This yearbook depicts the experiences of the student body over the course of the school year in academic pursuits, athletic activities, and various school clubs.

The success of any venture depends upon the individual's participation - you. I am very pleased that such a high number of students have been a part of the happenings at Central this year. You are that much richer.

Outside of school, this pattern of success continues to apply. It will be your contribution that will be important. If you make the time available to become involved, that activity will benefit from your unique experiences. Over the years our society will have new problems to solve. The most effective way to deal with problems will be for each of us to do our part and not depend on the other person to do our share.

To our graduates, may I add my best wishes in your future plans. Thank you for being a part of the success of Central.

G. Bruce Buckingham

Just as a newspaper can be a fine record of a community's life, so this yearbook can present the story of ten months in the life of our school.

But just as a newspaper misses most of the stories of its community simply because it cannot collect all the activities in each citizen's daily life, so this yearbook cannot begin to offer a complete picture of 1977-78 at Central.

Each one of us, has personal memories to add to the pages of this book: someone special . . . help when we didn't expect it . . . embarrassment . . . the firsts we stumbled into . . . the surprises we gave ourselves this year . . .

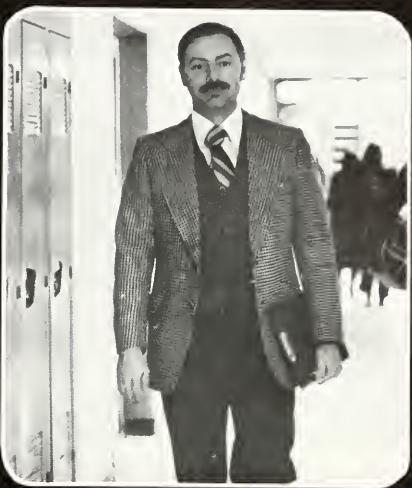

Our editors and their staff have worked well to capture the people and events which we have shared in common. It is our individual task to add the new mental pages with memories that make each book unique.

For me this has been a good year. I have many positive points to recall about those of you whom I met "on the carpet", in the halls, in a class or during a more relaxed moment at a game or in the cafeteria. These memories will make this book special for me.

In the years to come, whenever we look back through COLLEGIAN '78, may seeing this chronicle of our times together also help us to recall the moments we each endured and enjoyed to ourselves alone.

John A. Miller

The reality of being selected as an Australian Exchange Teacher is a privilege, which also affords one a most unique way of being exposed to the friendliness and hospitality of Australians, as one lives in the Australian Teacher's home. Teaching in an Australian school allows one a first hand idea of a different method of operating schools. Australian governments, both state and federal, are very similar to ours in Canada. Many other things were also found in both countries, e.g. the treatment given to the true native folks of both countries.

The Australian continent is about the same size as continental USA, and as one traverses the land 'down under' he can encounter tremendous contrasts, from the bleak Flinders Rangers, to the barren, dry, inhospitable desert, to the fertile plains with lush tropical growth and snow-capped mountains. Aside from a tremendous shortage of fresh water streams and lakes, I suppose the greatest difference is in adjusting to the high summer temperature, which often exceeds 40°C. My wife and I waited 25 years to get to Australia, and I imagine we will be talking about the wonderful trip for the next 25 years.

Exchange Students

Ohio students and Central students participated in a week-long exchange visit in November. On Saturday, November 5, four Central students travelled to Lima, Ohio, while four American students arrived in Stratford. The Lima students were guests of the families whose son or daughter went to Ohio, and likewise with Central's students. The Prefects organized a busy week of events which included a day at school, tours of various Stratford industries, a pot-luck supper, a trip to Toronto, a tour through the Parliament Buildings with Perth MPP Hugh Edighoffer, a tour of the Stratford Festival, a trip to the University of Guelph and a Cullitons' hockey game. The Lima students, the student hosts and the host families found it to be a most beneficial and rewarding exchange visit.

Of the many Rotary exchange students who have visited Central, one of the most interesting was Andrés Hoyos from Colombia. Andrés came to Canada one cold January day, having left behind the 30°C temperature of Colombia. When he first entered Central's halls he had trouble speaking English, and as a result, missed a few classes to learn his new language. As the year wore on, Andrés began to find more and more things that could be learned outside class, and of course, to need more and more time to learn them. During his year in Stratford, Andrés became popular with many people—especially in the detention room. He spent much of his summer out of Stratford and returned ready for school in September. Andrés returned to Colombia recently, leaving behind the cold winters of Canada and more than his share of broken hearts.

It was a beautiful kite;
Everyone said so.
It was shaped like a white bird
Poised and ready for flight.
Everyone took turns flying it,
Pulling and guiding the string,
Never letting it stray too far.
And when the first one was finished,
The next one took over.
The wind blew invitingly
And played games with its tail
And the kite answered, swirling and tugging,
But the string was always there.
Higher, higher they said -
It must go higher.
And they were obsessed with the dreams they had for the kite
And not with dreams for themselves.
Sometimes when the people tugged
They tugged too hard
And the kite was caught in a tree.
Sometimes it rained and the wind blew hard
And the kite was tired.
It was no longer pure white -
It was dirty and scratched,
And marred.
Finally the string snapped
And the kite was able to go as it pleased.
Everyone was sad and called to it to stay
But the kite smiled - for it was free now -
And said,
I've got to move on,
I've got to go.

And she reflects upon the empty room.

No more posters
clutter the walls.
Only the silent remainders of sticky tape glare....

The closet door is open as usual
but there is no cascade of laundry tumbling
from the shadows;
just empty hangers.

The furniture is bare or gone.
A well loved dog
with the left ear missing guards the memories and safeguards the past
it will always be here.

The people change

Movin' On. . .

MOVIN ON

She stood on the rim overlooking the cluster of buildings.

The sturdy house,
where she had been born,
Where she had grown up,
where she had become the fine woman she now was

The barn,
a refuge for a small girl with large problems,
the thinking spot for a budding writer.

The root cellar,
where she had hidden more than once from the heat of the summer and from the chores of the household.

She took in the scene before her with nostalgia.
Then she turned,
for she was movin' on.

MOVIN ON

The waves are pounding 'gainst
the rocks
And splashing on the shore
Up and up they swell again
Flinging spray once more.
Then on their way they softly slip
But never are they gone
They're timeless, never changing
And only moving on.

How quickly time can pass us by
How slowly can it creep
And like the waves it's something which
Is never ours to keep.
It's part of one big circle
A vast eternal plan
It also steadily moves on
So use it while you can.

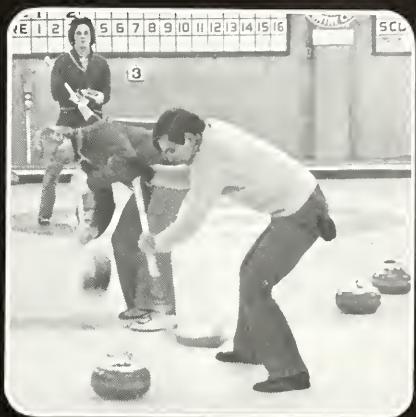

Our lives are like the ocean waves
Or time's fine golden sands
So reach out brothers, sisters
dear
And clasp each other's hands
So that we may together form
A union firm and strong
That like the waves and fleeting time
We, too, may move along.

For like the waves and fleeting time
We, too, shall move along.

The Rams look forward to another successful season in 1978. Special thanks to Mr. Hurley and Mr. Hildenbrand.

Senior Soccer

Dave Fischer, Rick Mazzanti, Walt Bazylewicz, Dan Gerber, Mike Backmund, Steve Voros, Mr. Vredeveld.

The '77 senior soccer team went through an undefeated regular season with a record of 4 wins and 2 ties. However, it lost the semi-final playoff game to Goderich by a score of 1 to 0. Congratulations to all members of the team and to Coach Vredeveld.

Cross-Country

Girls'

The girls' cross-country teams ended with another successful year. All teams advanced from Huron-Perth finals to WOSSA. Our most successful team was the midget girls who remained undefeated until OFSSA competition where they placed eighth. The junior girls placed second at Huron-Perth and eighth at WOSSA. The senior girls placed third at Huron-Perth and sixth at WOSSA.

Boys'

Our boys' team competed in five meets this year, one of which was our own invitational meet. Huron-Perth was held at Benniller where the team won the overall boys' championship with each team placing second in its division. Chris Mitchell, Russel Bissonnette and Steve Leeming all placed second in their respective races. At WOSSA the team placed fifth overall. The midgets were ninth, the juniors tenth and the seniors sixth. Another good year!

Track and Field Team

The track and field team of 1976/77 was very successful in Huron-Perth competition claiming the girls', boys' and the overall championship of the meet. Track proved to be our strongest point in WOSSA competition where we earned four seconds, two thirds, and one fourth.

Curling Club

BACK ROW: John Douglas, Keith Bush, Paul Nichol, John Hayhow, Eric Egheoz, Terry Higgins, Paul Nemeth, Sam Parks, Paul Cameron, Derek Leinweber, Mark Verwymeran, Mark Wendland, Tom Walden.

Central's enthusiastic curlers vie each year for the SCSS curling trophy. This is a fun club but for those who are interested in more competitive play, there is both a boys' and a girls' team. At the Southwestern Ontario Regional Winter Games, the boys earned a bronze medal while the girls brought home a silver. At Perth Championships, the girls tied for first place and the boys were also successful in capturing top spot. Congratulations to all club members for a very impressive season.

Junior

Our team had an excellent season under the superb coaching of Mr. Clem Faust. We compiled a perfect league record of 10 wins and 0 losses which put us in first place. Defeating Listowel and Goderich made us H-P champs for the second year in a row. Unfortunately, we were narrowly defeated by St. Clair in our first game of WOSSA competition. Extra-special thanks go out to Mr. Faust.

Senior

Our season won't go down in the annals of "Great Moments in Sports". Nor will the team members, in spite of their heroics, be inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame. But....the team deserves an "E" for effort, for displaying good sportswomanship.

The team was excellently coached by a "new-look" Mrs. McFarlane, and compiled a 6-4 record. The team is looking forward to the first-ever girls' alumni b-ball game, where they hope to notch victory no. 1.

Midget

Last year, the team retained the H-P championship first won by the 75/76 squad, and the 77/78 squad appears to be well on its way to repeating that success. At press time, their record was 8-0. Highlights of the season included the selection of Lothar Mueller to the Montcalm tournament all-star team and also, with Craig Foster, to the Rambler tournament all-star team. Central won the consolation final of that tournament 80-30 over Listowel.

It looks like we're in for another successful season. Through strenuous practices, Mr. Neigh has moulded us into a disciplined and efficient basketball team.

The team is composed of sharpshooting guards backed up by enforcing postmen and skilful wingmen. Randy and Len are commended for their fine services, and for helping to pluck out Mr. Neigh's grey hairs which the whole team somehow managed to give him!

Senior

Tom Shurrie, Rick Erb, Steve Leeming, Ron Hall, Jeff Stecher, Rob Appel, Harry Van Drunen, Jim Youngblut, Dirk Newberry, Scott Duncan, Mike White, Dan Fischer, Randy Mattell, Mr. Garner.

This was THEIR year. They were rated as one of the best double A teams in Western Ontario and tenth best of all the triple A teams. They were undefeated in league play and had an excellent chance of winning WOSSA and going to the Ontario championships, but due to unfortunate circumstances were not able to continue their play.

Under the superb coaching of Mrs. Bell, the team has shown many intelligent moments ("u-u-u-uh Naomi!"), many out-standing moments ("bend those knees girls!"), and many moments they would like to forget ("memory drill, girls!"). But, "Wat?" was the reason behind all of this? Let's just say the girls were cruisin' for a bruisin'!

BACK ROW: Mr. Pratley, Linda Swanson, Brenda Hishon, Stephanie Ochman, Sue Little, Janice Gerrie, Kathy Mohrmann, Kim Ridgewell, Fiona Wilkie.

The team was a great success. The girls won an exhibition tournament in Goderich. They were in first place at the end of the semi-finals and battled against Goderich to win. The girls are maintaining the lead as they start regular season play. They have eight league games to play before they move into the H-P finals. If victorious, the team advances to WOSSA and will do their best.

B. A. A. Executive

John Linton, Treasurer; Tim Huras, Secretary; Brian Wray, President; Martin Cozyn, Vice President.

The B.A.A. has been busy again with various activities. It maintained its position of furthering athletics within the school as well as promoting inter-school events.

Last year saw a few improvements provided by the B.A.A. The basketball courts and football scoreboard are examples. This year, there is an athletic bulletin board as well as a number of basketball games and dances.

G. A. A. Executive

Marilyn Holmes, President; Frances Philip, Vice President; Liz Mountain, Treasurer; Janet Culliton, Secretary.

The G.A.A. is a girls service club which raises money to subsidize girls' sports activities which are not paid for by the school.

Some of the activities which helped us to have a successful year were booths at football games and field day, the Sadie Hawkins' HoeDown, an encyclopedia book raffle, gym suits, gym shorts, and sweatshirt sales, as well as several bake sales and the annual Twirl Dance.

Gymnastics is a very demanding sport and is composed of four events: floor exercise, balance beam, uneven parallel bars, and vaulting. There is only one competition in the H-P division but those who place well go on to a bigger and better thing: WOSSA. All members work hard in this individual sport and it always pays off. Good Luck!

Boys' Gymnastics

When someone says the word "gymnastics", one thinks of some brave (or stupid) guy up on the high bar doing obviously suicidal moves. Well, gymnastics is not just co-ordinated craziness. A lot of practice and concentration occurs before each difficult move is done.

Central's boys have done well in the past. Last year, we won H-P and WOSSA championships for both junior and senior, and made it to the all-Ontario finals.

Field Hockey

This was the first year that a Field Hockey League was formed in Huron-Perth. Our team played 5 games through the season and finished the year with a tournament in Exeter.

The day of the tournament, the team and its new uniforms were put through a tremendous test. We battled the constant rain and sleet to capture 4th place.

Special thanks go to our Captain, Lynn Teixeira, whose "drive" sparked the team on, and to Miss Hill, our coach.

The Rambler Team attended several tournaments with good results. Central's team placed 6th at H-P. Individual medals went to Brock Martin, (1st); Brian Nigro and Chris Mitchell (2nd); and Jeff Kemp and Frank Sinko (3rd). It was a disappointment for these wrestlers that they could not attend WOSSA. Students' Council

Every year when you open your yearbook to the Presidential message, you are bombarded with all kinds of sentimental rot - you know, people thanking their mothers, fathers, teachers, friends, pet goldfish, and rubber plants. It hardly seems, however, that this is intentional: it is simply the only way that someone (who incidentally, hates writing silly things like this) can sum up a year well spent.

"What's it like being prez?", you ask!

"Well", I say, "it was quite an interesting year. I learned how to be a diplomat, a mediator, a psychiatrist, and a chronic complainer. At the same time I forgot to do my homework, water my plants, and pass my subjects! "

Seriously though, if I did not want to be President, I wouldn't have run for the job. (c'mon you guys, no snide comments please) Really, I enjoyed what I did and I feel that what I did, I did well. The job has pleased me immensely and has given me the opportunity to meet interesting people and to help the most important people- the students of Central.

I doubt that I'll be remembered as the Abraham Lincoln of Central- freeing the burdened slaves from their overpowering masters- the teachers- but then again will we ever have a Lincoln, or a Churchill, or a Pearson on our student council? I was a Steele and I did that the best way that I could.

I'd like to thank everyone that helped to make my year a happy one the executives, the reps, the office staff, Mr. Buckingham, Mr. Miller, and last but not least I'd like to thank my rubber plant for the support and help it gave me all year.

Thanks to everyone and good luck in the future.

I'd like to close with some words by Robert Frost. They sum up my feelings towards my year in "office".

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Prefects

The Prefect Association operated smoothly and efficiently under the able direction of Martin Cozyn, President; and with guidance from Mrs. Day and Mr. Jorna. As well as supervising the many school dances and assemblies, the Prefects hosted four American students who were in Stratford on a week long exchange program, operated the box office and supervised the four performances of the Drama Club's Christmas play "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown", and held their own fund raising activity, Rose Day.

Cheerleaders

"Let's go Central High, Central High go, let's go!" These words, commonly heard from the bottom floor, have echoed throughout the school another year by none other than the cheerleaders. It seems they survived the bumps and falls and lack of space to finish a successful year of cheering for the no. 1 school. This year the cheerleaders placed third in the Red and Black competition. Congratulations girls, and thank-you, Mrs. Day.

Key Club

The Key Club, Central's newest club, is a youth organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Stratford. Kiwanis Educates Youth, is the whole purpose behind our club. It is a social service club and has already accomplished, in its first year, activities such as the United Way Basketball Marathon that raised about 400 dollars, a skating party, as well as assistance at Parent's Night, SAWA auction, Kiwanis snowmobile rally, and much more. Our plans for next year include even bigger and better things. The Key Club is a great opportunity for students of any age who enjoy meeting, helping, and working with all types of people.

MIDDLE ROW: Lynn Teixeira, Barb Lennon, Bonnie Knechtel, Pauline Lennon, Mr. Hildenbrand.

Model Parliament

LEFT TO RIGHT: Kim Smith, First Leader of the Opposition; Kenny Brien, Mr. Speaker; Gerry Culliton, Prime Minister; June Dewetering, Clerk; Stewart Shackleton, Second Leader of the Opposition.

This year's first session was held in mid-December. The executive directed a very successful debate. Three bills, on the topics of a guaranteed annual income, tobacco advertising, and separatism, were all passed. For the second session, Stewart Shackleton was elected to replace Kim Smith as Leader of the Opposition. People interested in current events and politics should give this club a try!

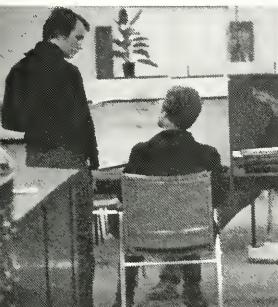

Reach for the Top

LEFT TO RIGHT: Kenny Brien, Brian Wray, Stewart Shackleton, Paul Nemeth, Trevor Heney.

This year's team, improved its performance over last year by winning its first game over a school from Guelph. However, they lost the second game to a school from Walkerton. As this year's team consisted entirely of year 5's, the team will have to be rebuilt next year. We will welcome junior students to come and try out.

Library Club

This year has been a good one for the Library Club. Our trip to the Beacon Herald was most interesting. The pizza and pop party at Christmas was tremendous (and just think- we didn't even decorate our door). All of us are looking forward to the year-end banquet at some classy restaurant. P.S. We, the book shelvees, would like to thank the powers that be for the extra 50 books that we have to shelve on Thursday, after every reading period. Some year we'll get even! Just wait....

Le Cercle Français

Cette année on s'est beaucoup amusé le jeudi. On a bien mangé un repas français au restaurant ensemble et on a assisté aux présentations par des invités. Ici, sans faire des exercices de grammaire, tout le monde a fait du progrès dans la langue française.

Merit Awards Committee

This year's major project was the completion of an overhaul of the present Merit Award system. With input from all available sources, the committee worked diligently on a final draft to be presented to the Students' Council. It is hoped that the new system will be in effect in 1978-79.

FRONT ROW: Eddie Waller, Jackie Waller, Rodney Garratt, Ann Swerdfager.

RAMBLIN' ON, Central's new concept of the school newspaper, started off this year with a new name, inexperienced but enthusiastic staff and an entirely revised format. It is printed by the Beacon Herald. Although the paper is small, it is a realistic microcosm of a commercial newspaper and offers valuable experience to all those budding young journalists who participate. It is hoped that this year's RAMBLIN' ON will serve as a precedent to many more papers in the years to come.

Third Word

This club is composed of a group of students concerned about Third World countries. They organize various activities in order to raise money to help these underdeveloped countries. This year a major project undertaken was the sale of UNICEF cards. The club also organized several slide presentations about third world countries during the year. Special thanks go to Miss Morrison for her help during the year.

BACK ROW: Miss Morrison, Wendy Lam, Chris Page.

Craft Club and Gourmet Cooking

A new club is making an entrance into the activity program at Central this year. Students interested in working with their hands, showing their creative talents through unusual crafts, or stirring up a caldron of inviting delicacies in the kitchen, have been enthusiastically pursuing their interests. Miss Bradbury and Mrs. Rigg have lead the way.

BACK ROW: Anita Lennon, Sherry Yantzi, Pauline Lennon, Lorraine Schmidt.

Choir

This year the choir expanded, and Central is now fortunate to have a mixed choir, consisting of both students and staff. The choir is under the fine direction of Miss Reuber, accompanied by Mr. McKay. The group at present consists of approximately twenty-five voices. A wide variety of music is practised and performed when the members can keep straight faces.

BACK ROW: Dan Hansen, Dave Moore, Paul Sippel, Fritz Steigmeier, Peggy Kriesz, Mr. Manning.
MIDDLE ROW: Speedo, Anne Cumming, Joan Morris, Anne Cosstick, Pearl Teitelbaum, Mary Ellen Van de Wetering, Sue Little, Kerry Foster, Lucy Coish, Julie Thompson, Sandra Russell, Marjorie Clutton.

Junior Band

This is a group of 60 music students still in the early years of playing. For many students, it is their first band experience. The band performs for various school and community functions, as well as representing the school outside the city. The junior band takes pride in their work and constantly strives for improvement.

Senior Band

The senior band was busy this year! We played at the Remembrance Day assembly as well as at the city-wide Christmas concert at Knox church. To finance our trip (tentatively to British Columbia), we embarked on such ventures as raffles, bake sales, dances and of course...FRUIT SALES! Yes, once again this year we sold 20 tons of oranges and grapefruit. We know that next year will take us "onward and upward."

Stage Band

The stage band was made up of eighteen members, whose desire was to have a lot of fun and generally get away from that 'other' music. This year's plans included performances at all senior public schools in the area, along with dances during the year and a trip took place near the end of the year.

Special thanks go to our leader—that guy with the big smile and bowtie, Larry McKay.

Drama Club

FRONT ROW: Julie Harieux, John Micks.
SECOND ROW: Michelle Brubacher, Janice Hislop, Julie Misener, Mary Misener, Jackie Keen, Mr. Dodson.
THIRD ROW: Rob Perry, Dave Moore, Cathy Christian.

Central's Drama Club made the leap into musical theatre with the heart-warming family musical "You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown", which was presented just before the Christmas holidays. Charlie and his friends kept the audience amused and entertained on each of the four nights of its presentation.

At the beginning of the year, the Drama Club accepted the challenge of performing a short play "Travellers to Emmaus" at the University of Toronto as part of the medieval York Cycle of mystery plays.

Plans to conclude the year include a "Festival of One Act Plays", which will be produced in cooperation with the Year IV Theatre Arts classes. A very active and successful year!

Science Club

Members of this club along with staff advisors, Mr. Slater and Mrs. Burr, were very active this year. Last fall we planted tulip bulbs in Stratford. Throughout the year we dabble in embryology, photography, fermentation, hikes to the Bruce Trail, Energy Week and various other side ventures such as a tour of the University of Guelph's observatory. This club is a great learning experience but also a lot of fun.

Geography and Environmental

This club has three main functions: providing services to the school and community; promoting geographic and environmental things amongst the members, and having fun. The members were involved in hiking on the Bruce Trail, visiting farms and industries, planting bulbs in the spring, promoting conservation of natural resources, cleaning up schoolgrounds and neighbouring properties, playing Geography games and raising money for worthy causes and many other things. New members are always welcome.

Math Club

FRONT ROW: Chris Airhart, Tim Collings, Ed Sinclair.

During the months of January and February, members get together once a week to solve difficult and unusual mathematical problems in preparation for the Junior Math contest. All the members write the contest paper in early March and the top five contestants represent the school's score. Last year and for the second year in a row, Central placed first in its division which comprises twenty area schools.

Chess Club

This year's club has not been as active as the one of 1976-77. We would look forward to enrolling any new members from Central who play chess now or who want to learn. Last year's club was successful in bringing home two trophies—second place in a Southwestern Ontario Tournament and first place in a Perth County High School Tournament.

BACK ROW: Mr. Roussell, Jack Celej, Chris Collings, Fritz Steigmeier.

Audio Visual Club

FRONT ROW: Harry Endemann, Eric Ehgoetz, Mr. Douglas, Paul MacLachlan, John Douglas, Frank Glosnek.

This club is composed of a large number of dedicated students who perform many functions which include: video-taping live events, reproducing T.V. programs, preparing various visual materials using our photographic equipment and other numerous tasks. Assistance is also given to the COLLEGIAN in developing negatives and prints. Outside organizations often call upon members to operate T.V. cameras, projectors and record equipment.

Art Club

The members worked on stained glass Christmas windows, but, as a result of technical problems, they were unable to finish them on time. This year attention will be focused on individual work. If there are students interested in doing group work, projects are available. Perhaps a cartoon mural for the cafeteria is in the offing.

Creative Writing

Sherrie Neeb, Judy Arthur, Anne Jackson, Mr. Tonks

This new club gives students who enjoy reading and writing a chance to use and develop their creative abilities.

Who knows....perhaps the Hemingways and Shakespeares of the future are right here at Central.

Well the year is over and despite snowstorms, strikes, and deadlines during exams, so is the Collegian. The result—the transition from the typical Collegian pose of the candid to the smiling faces in the staff picture! And of course we've all learned a great deal, like there are six picas in an inch (or is it eight?), how to sneak in six cartons of milk and five lunches into the resource centre (sorry Mr. Milson), and how to go quietly insane when someone jiggles the table while you're trying to darken finished artwork.

Most of us have become psychiatric out-patients but we finished the book and that's what counts. We hope you like it. If you have any ideas, come see us next year!

January 2, 1978 was exact fare day in Stratford. You will now need the exact fare to board a Stratford transit bus because our drivers will not have change to give you.

You will notice something right away when EXACT FARE takes effect. Fewer lineups means fewer delays in boarding. Fewer delays in boarding means faster trips. Exact fare systems are already proving successful in many Canadian cities (Kitchener, Toronto, London, Sarnia).

On the odd occasion you may get caught without the correct change and have to deposit more money in the fare box than is necessary. Should this occur, you may obtain a refund slip from the driver upon request.

The refund may then be obtained by presenting refund slip in person to Stratford Transit Office in City Hall. Office hours: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday thru Saturday. (Except holidays)

Driving courses are for other people.

Or are they?

Today in Ontario a clear record is one mark of a driver who knows the serious responsibilities he has assumed - to protect himself and to ensure the safety of his passengers and other highway users.

Only you can keep your driving record clear - more reasons to drive defensively and safely.

The Perth County Board of Education is sponsoring a Driver Education Program in the high schools throughout the county. Get information on enrollment from your school business office.

Careful drivers know driving safely is a full-time job

We think you will appreciate that you are living in one of the most beautiful cities in Canada. With its cultural activities, beautiful parks and recreational facilities, Stratford is a most pleasant place to live.

Your attitude toward your city is important. Tourists like to visit Stratford to see the Shakespearean Festival and meet the citizens who are proud of their City.

Your enthusiastic support of Stratford, wherever you go, will encourage our tourist industry -- and further our city's own future; hopefully, this will be your future also.
